

New Jersey Association of Professional Mediators

40-Hour Civil Mediation Training

Enhance your practice or career – become a court-qualified and/or private practice civil mediator.

Mediation is rapidly becoming the preferred method for parties to resolve lawsuits and disputes. If you are an attorney, accountant, businessperson, law enforcement, education, mental health or other professional and want to become a qualified civil and commercial mediator and receive training from New Jersey's premier association of professional mediators, you should take this course.

Key elements

Technique: Understand what mediation is and what good mediation skills are. Learn various techniques to use during mediation and when to use them.

Process: How a mediation is conducted from beginning to end. Receive practice forms and documents which you can customize for your own use.

Case Management: Understand how a mediation's case flow works and ensure your clients are properly prepared for the mediation session.

Marketing: Learn about mediation opportunities and how to prospect for clients

Program features

Multi-disciplinary faculty: The faculty is composed of experienced mediators who are also attorneys, business persons and other professionals. This multi-disciplinary faculty will expose you to different mediation approaches and styles. You will be a better mediator by learning from this diverse faculty.

Small classes: Classes are limited to a maximum of 24 students. You will be able to better participate in the extensive role-plays and receive individualized attention from the faculty and mentors.

Low student-teacher ratio: Each mediation role play group will have a coach for personalized feedback.

Method of instruction

Lecture: Learn from prominent New Jersey mediators.

Videos and faculty demonstration: Learn by watching experienced mediators.

Multiple student role plays: Learn by doing and observing.
