Position/Title: _____

The education requirement may only be waived for mediators who hold an undergraduate college degree from a recognized college or university and can prove substantial mediation experience in formal mediations, specifically divorce mediations, mediations of other Family Part matters, or civil mediations in matters cognizable by the Law Division of Superior Court. If the applicant does not have an advanced degree or professional license in one of the areas identified in the Standards for Accreditation, but has a college degree and substantial mediation experience (as above), the applicant shall first file for a waiver of the education requirement and demonstrate to the Accreditation Chairperson's satisfaction that the applicant has sufficient qualitative mediation experience.

Please describe why you should be granted a waiver

Please attach any documents which you feel will assist in the determination.

Certification

I certify that the information I submitted including any documentation is true, accurate and complete. I understand that providing intentionally inaccurate information, misleading information, withholding information or presenting materially false information is grounds for suspension and/or revocation of my membership in the New Jersey Association of Professional Mediators.
