40 Hour Divorce Mediation Training

Divorce mediation is rapidly becoming the preferred method for couples to get divorced. If you are an attorney, mental health or other professional and want to become a divorce mediator and receive training from New Jersey's premier association of professional mediators, you should take this course.

Program Features

-) Multi-disciplinary faculty: The faculty is composed of attorneys, mental health professionals, CPA's and other professionals who mediate divorces regularly.
-) This multi-disciplinary faculty will expose you to different mediation approaches and styles.
-) You will be a better mediator by learning from this diverse faculty.
-) Small classes: Classes are limited to a maximum of 24 students. You will be able to better participate in the extensive role-plays and receive individualized attention from the faculty.
-) Low student-teacher ratio: There will a ratio of 1 instructor for every 8 students for role plays.
-) Weekend classes for your convenience.
-) Follow-up teleconference three months after training session.

Method of Instruction

-) Lecture: Learn from prominent mediators and other experts.
-) Faculty demonstration: Learn by watching experienced mediators.
-) Student role plays: Learn by doing.

Key Elements of Training

-) Parenting, child support, alimony, equitable distribution, and domestic violence.
-) Process: How a divorce mediation is conducted from beginning to end.
-) Separate Breakout Session on Challenges of Mediating: For those having working knowledge of child support guidelines.
-) Receive documents, such as agreements to mediate, balance and expense spreadsheets, and Memoranda of Understanding in both paper and electronic format that you can customize for your practice.
-) Technique: Learn what mediation is, what good mediation skills are, and how to use these techniques in your practice.
-) 1:40 Family Economic Program: Meets 40-Hour course requirement.
-) CLEs: The course qualifies for 48 NJ CLE credits including 2.4 ethics credits.
-) CPEs: The course qualifies for 48 CPE credits including 2.4 ethics credits.
